1.1.125
a Lesson in the University of The New Covenant
Theodore Cottingham, October 26, 2003 in Buenos Aires
www.unc.bz

1. There are so many that preach so many things not of Me, so many things. They preach their understanding and not My understanding that I long to give them and will, if they will come and sit at My feet. So many preach so many superstitions that supercede My Word and My relationship to My people. So many preach their agenda and copy what they thing others did that brought them acclaim, honor, prestige, to hold on to position and income, power, money.

2. Oh Ted, so many don't preach Me—lived, died, resurrected, arisen, living, speaking, confidencing, significancing—My body. They dwell in microcosms of abyss that fuel not the spirit/mind of My troops, My armies, My beloved. Oh Ted, the language of the world and 'what sells' today is not My language of love and life-laid-down for Me and who I say to. Oh Ted, so much for so little.

3. I am coming to this land. I am coming to Argentina. Cindy Jacobs is right in her prophecy of the multiplication I am bringing to this land. But Ted, they'll listen, they'll listen, they have listened and will listen so much more, so much more, and that's why Argentina is in your future so often.

4. I take you to the ready—I take you to the willing so they will open fully to Me fully, and arise to the significance that I seek to raise them to. Oh Ted, so much for so little. I ask so little for what I give, provide, impart.

5. Oh Ted, I lament so deeply for those who wait not at My feet but preach sermons, sermons, sermons which often have none of My words, none of My flesh, some of My blood, in them which redeems—rediscovers that which is already there, and uncovers and sets free the freedomized soul that has been covered over with un-truth, deceptions and control by others.

6. Love sets free, love always sets free, love never fails and never fails to bring freedom.

7. Gauge the love in a person by the amount of freedom they give to those around them.

8. I am liberty, I am freedom, I am Creator, I am creating, and Ted, your words are true and must be conveyed in joy and laughter to My people to increase their freedom.

9. Love the pastors, love those who preach—even wrong—and touch them tenderly in respect and honor and appreciate them for even trying. Take nothing from them—take not their honor or respect or sense of personal dignity—simply share Me and lift and encourage and let Me be Me. And Ted, I will be Me. I am not hesitant to deal with the open-to-Me heart.

10. I joy, I laugh, I weep, I live, I touch, I impart, I heal, I significance after I've confidenced.

11. I come and I call and I'm ready to move in those you see standing, standing, leading—leading even in error—but leading—having stood. I arise and I impart and I forgive and I heal and I touch and significance in the way that I only can. Love them, honor them, empower them, respect them, and free them in freedom to free others.

12. I arise, I arise, I arise for I stand and I await with outstretched arms the people of Argentina and the people—all the people of Argentina touch. For I come and await and I am taking you across continents to link Argentine leaders of My heart, with leaders of My heart in locations you don't even know exist, to significance My body as never before.

13. Your keys, your keys—you're getting it and write you must and publish My words and what all I am giving you for freeing the paradigms of power—My power—My love—in My people.

14. Oh Ted, thank you for going to Argentina and enjoying My people and connecting with My leaders there, and there from all over, and moving in connecting keys that will transform the transformation process.

15. Go now, enjoy, laugh and keep meeting the people I have brought you to, and brought to you. I love you. I love them.

16. Resurrecting My people you are, for I come through you in power—love, joy, laughter, and Ted, dance.

17. Thank you for being totally unashamed of Me.

18. I love you. I thank you. I adore you—and all of My body.